ATTENDANCE: Read this section carefully. Selectemp is committed to maintaining successful relationships with its customers. In order to accomplish this mission, Selectemp must provide its customers only with employees who are hard-working, trustworthy, professional and reliable. Your unexcused failure to attend your job assignments harm Selectemp's ability to do business and jeopardizes the relationship between Selectemp and the customer to which you have been assigned.

Accordingly, the following attendance rules must specifically be agreed to before you begin your employment with Selectemp. These attendance rules are an important part of your employment. If you have any questions regarding these rules, you must address them to the interviewer before signing this agreement. Once you sign this agreement, you will be required to follow these attendance rules:

- 1) If you must be absent from your job assignment for any reason, you must contact the Selectemp office from which you were assigned, as well as your on-site supervisor, with as much notice as possible before your scheduled start time. In the case of an emergency in which you are unable to contact the appropriate Selectemp office, a family member may do so on your behalf. Regardless, when you must be absent, contact must ALWAYS be made directly with the Selectemp office, and if possible, the work location to which to you are assigned.
- 2) If your absence is covered under the Oregon Sick Leave law, you MUST state that when calling in. Selectemp's clear expectations surrounding the Oregon Sick Leave law are listed below:
 - a) Eligible Employees: To be eligible for a leave under this policy, Employees must primarily work in Oregon and have been employed by Selectemp for at least 90 days before the Employee uses OSL. OSL accrual will begin on January 1, 2016, or on Employee's commencement of employment, whichever occurs later. provide eligible Employees with weekly accumulations on each paycheck, reflecting accrued and unused OSL available for use by the Employee.

- c) Reasons For Leave: OSL may be taken based on:
- i) the diagnosis, care, or treatment of the Employee's, or the Employee's Family Member's, mental or physical illness, injury or health condition including, but not limited to, pregnancy, childbirth, postpartum care and preventive medical care;
 - ii) to care for the Employee's newborn, newly adopted or newly placed foster child;

 - viii) As used in this policy, "Family Member" means the Employee's spouse, parent, parent-in-law, grandparent, grandchild, biological, adopted or foster child and same sex domestic partner (including a same-sex domestic partner's parent or child).
- 3) Length of Leave: Qualifying Employees are entitled to use a maximum of 40 hours of OSL per year. Intermittent OSL leave is permitted for qualifying reasons and may be taken in minimum increments of one hour.
- 4) Leave Usage: OSL will be considered an excused leave of absence and will not count for purposes of considering Employee's attendance under the Company's absence control policies.
- 5) Notice of OSL Leave: All Employees requesting OSL leave must notify their Selectemp representative when the need to use OSL is foreseeable, the Employee shall provide notice as soon as practicable, and shall make a reasonable effort to schedule OSL in a manner that does not unduly disrupt the Customer's operations. If an Employee's need for OSL is not foreseeable, Employee shall notify their Selectemp representative, via the MAIN office line (Texting or Emailing will not be allowed as the main line allows for everyone to have needed information for tracking and notification to customers) of the need to use OSL, a minimum of 30 minutes before the start of the Employee's scheduled work shift or as soon thereafter as practicable in the event of an unforeseen emergency. Failure to provide reasonable notice may result in denial of leave and/or may result in the loss of job protection.
- 6) Paid Leave: OSL is paid at the Employee's rate of pay the Employee would have earned during the time which OSL is used, not considering overtime rates. Salaried Employees are paid one-fifth of their regular weekly salary for each full day of OSL. Keeping our employees safe and their work environment safe is extremely important to us and something we address with all of our customers. The purpose of our program is to promote and support the return of any injured employee.

An employee may be required to be tested for drug and alcohol abuse whenever Selectemp or their customer has reasonable suspicion to believe that an employee's work performance or on-the-job behavior may have been affected in any way by the use of drugs or alcohol. Reasonable suspicion is drawn from specific and articulate facts and reasonable inferences drawn from those facts in light of experience, leading to a belief that an employee is using or has used drugs or alcohol in violation of this policy. Such facts and inferences may be drawn from, but are not limited to, the following:

positive for drugs or alcohol as a result of a reasonable suspicion test will be subject to discipline, up to and including immediate discharge. If the employee tests negative, the employee will be permitted to return to work.

Selectemp will not hire any applicant who fails to pass the pre-employment drug or alcohol test.

TESTING PRACTICES: Selectemp is licensed as a certified collection laboratory for testing. The test to be performed on the specimen shall be the most reliable method of testing available at that time and shall be verified prior to the taking of any disciplinary action. Should the specimen render an Other-than-negative result, that same specimen will be sent to a qualified certification laboratory for independent verification. The employee will be present through the chain of command processing of the specimen.

REHABILITATION: Employees who suffer from alcohol or drug problems are encouraged to seek assistance from an appropriate professional before the problem leads to disciplinary action. An employee's decision to seek appropriate professional assistance will not be used against the employee in any disciplinary action. Any professional assistance, however, will not exempt an employee from this Policy, disciplinary action or Selectemp or customer policy requirements.

CONFIDENTIALITY: The confidentiality of any information received by Selectemp through testing for drug and alcohol use will be maintained, except as otherwise provided by law.

SEARCHES: Selectemp shall not authorize (except when requested by a law enforcement agency) indiscriminate searches of lockers, desks or personal effects on customer property, but the customer reserves the right to conduct such searches based on reasonable suspicion.

DRUGS FOUND ON COMPANY PROPERTY: Illegal drugs or controlled substances found on Selectemp customer property must be turned over and cooperation given to the appropriate law enforcement agency.

EMPLOYEES' RIGHTS WHEN THERE'S A POSITIVE TEST RESULT: Upon receipt of a confirmed positive finding, the MRO will attempt to contact the employee by telephone or in person. If the MRO makes contact, he or she will inform the employee of the positive finding. The MRO will give the employee an opportunity to rebut or explain the findings. The MRO can request information on recent medical history. He or she can also ask for medications taken within the last 30 days by the employee. If the MRO finds support in the employee's explanation, he or she may ask the employee to provide documentary evidence to support his or her position. Evidence can include treating physicians and pharmacies, which filled prescriptions, etc. Failure on the part of the employee to provide documentary evidence will result in the MRO issuing a positive report with no attendant medical explanation. If the employee fails to contact the MRO as instructed, the MRO will issue a report of a positive test result.

POSITIVE TEST RESULTS: Selectemp will immediately take employees found to have a confirmed positive drug or alcohol test off safety-sensitive duties. The Company will subject these employees to discipline up to and including termination.

TERMINATION NOTICES: In those cases, where substance testing results in termination of employment, termination notices will list misconduct as the reason and we will deem termination for cause.

I have read and fully understand the Selectemp Affirmative Action & EEOC Policy:

ELECTRONIC FORM W-2 DISCLOSURE NOTICE: Selectemp is required by the IRS to provide each employee with a Form W-2 ("W-2") that states the employee's compensation and tax withholding amounts for the calendar year on or before January 31st of the following year. In the past, Selectemp provided paper copies of the W-2. Selectemp is now pleased to offer an electronic version of the W-2 for viewing and printing from our Selectemp Web Portal in lieu of a paper mailing.

The benefits of receiving an electronic W-2 statement are:

- Earlier access to the W-2
- Easier access to the W-2 (available anytime, day or night, on Selectemp's website once processed by Payroll)
- Elimination of the possibility that the W-2 may be lost, stolen, delayed or misplaced
- Continuity—the electronic version displays in the same format as the printed copy AND you can print multiple copies at your convenience
- Environmental friendliness & cost reduction (printing, postage, etc.)

YOUR CONSENT IS REQUIRED: Selectemp must receive your consent before it can deliver your W-2 electronically. You may indicate your consent by signing to accept the terms and conditions at the end of this employee agreement. If you click to accept the terms and conditions at the end of this employee application, but do NOT consent to receive your W-2 electronically, YOU MUST NOTIFY YOUR SELECTEMP REPRESENTATIVE, VIA EMAIL, TO CONVEY YOU DO NOT CONSENT TO AN ELECTRONIC W-2. Your notification must include your full name, address, social security number and email address.

If you do not consent to electronic-only delivery of your W-2 and send an email notifying your Selectemp representative as outlined in the preceding paragraph, Selectemp will send you a paper W-2 via U.S. mail no later than January 31. Conversely, if you do consent to electronic-only delivery of your W-2 by clicking to accept the terms and conditions at the end of this employee application, Selectemp will NOT mail you a paper W-2.

HOW LONG IS MY CONSENT VALID? Your consent for electronic delivery will remain valid from year to year unless and until you withdraw consent by sending written notification to Selectemp Employment Services, ATTN: Payroll, PO Box 71250, Springfield OR 97475 on or before January 10 for the prior tax year. Your written notice must be titled "Notice of Withdrawal of Consent to Receive W-2 Electronically" and must include your full name, current address, social security number and current email address. Withdrawal of consent will be effective on the date it is received by Selectemp, which shall be confirmed by Selectemp in writing or by email. Note: If consent is withdrawn, the withdrawal will only be effective for W-2s not yet issued.

Should your employment with Selectemp end, you will still be able to get your W-2's via Selectemp's web portal with your username and password.

CAN I STILL REQUEST A PAPER COPY OF MY W-2 IF I CONSENT? Yes. If, after giving consent, you desire a paper copy of your W-2, you may send a written request to Selectemp Employment Services, ATTN: Payroll, PO Box 71250, Springfield OR 97475. Your written request must be titled "Request for Paper Copy of W-2 for Tax Year ____" and must include your full name, current address, social security number and current email address. Requesting a paper copy in accordance with this paragraph does NOT automatically withdraw your consent for electronic-only delivery. Rather, withdrawal of consent must be sent in accordance with the preceding section.

UPDATED CONTACT INFORMATION REQUIRED: Should your contact information change, you are responsible for promptly entering these changes (such as a change in mailing address) within Selectemp's Employee Portal. Selectemp will likewise notify all employees should there be any changes in the company contact information provided above.

If you have any questions regarding your W-2's please contact us your local branch representative.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF CONSENT: I understand that by choosing to accept the terms and conditions at the end of my application for employment, I am affirmatively indicating my CONSENT to receive my W-2's electronically through the Selectemp Employee Portal. I further understand that my consent means I will not receive a paper copy of my Form W-2.

I have read and fully understand the Selectemp Electronic Form W-2 Disclosure Notice:

Alliance Solutions Group of Oregon, LLC Arbitration Program & Agreement

Alliance Solutions Group, LLC and its related companies including, but not limited to, Alliance Industrial Solutions, LLC, Alliance Vendor Solutions, LLC, Alliance Resource Solutions, LLC, Alliance Support Solutions, LLC, Alliance Skilled Industrial, LLC, Alliance Healthcare Solutions, LLC, Alliance Scientific Solutions, LLC, Alliance Industrial Elyria, LLC, Alliance Industrial Upper Sandusky, LLC, Alliance Industrial Youngstown, LLC, Alliance Professional Columbus, LLC, Alliance Legal Solutions, LLC, (DBA: Major Legal Services), Alliance Solutions Group of Oregon, LLC (dba Selectemp Employment Services), Alliance Solutions Group of Akron, LLC (collectively, "Alliance") and Alliance's respective parent corporations (if any), all future new additional companies created or added, affiliates, subsidiaries, divisions, successors, assigns and the current and former employees, officers, directors, and agents (together with Alliance, the "Company") seeks to work with its employees to resolve differences as soon as possible after they arise. Often times, differences can be eliminated through internal discussions between an employee and his/her supervisor. Other times, it may be helpful for Human Resources or other Company employees to become involved to help resolve a dispute. To facilitate dispute resolution, the Company has developed this binding arbitration agreement ("Agreement") to resolve disputes that are not disposed of through more informal means.

As a condition of hire and/or continued employment, each employee of Company, including the employee's heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns (collectively referred to as "you" or "your") (you and the "Company" may be collectively referred to as the "Parties") agrees to enter into this Agreement and be bound by its terms. In consideration of the foregoing, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, you and the Company agree as follows:

1. The Mutual Agreement to Arbitrate: Overview

Except for the claims set forth in the paragraph below, you are required to arbitrate any and all disputes, claims, or controversies ("claim") against the Company that could be brought in a court including, but not limited to, all claims arising out of your employment and the cessation of employment, including any claim that could have been presented to or could have been brought before any court. This Agreement to arbitrate includes, but is not limited to, claims under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act; the Older Worker's Benefit Protection Act; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; the Fair Labor Standards Act; the Family and Medical Leave Act; the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990; Section 1981 through 1988 of Title 42 of the United States Code; the Equal Pay Act; the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act; the Workers Adjustment and Retraining and Notice Act and any state or local anti-discrimination laws; or any other federal, state, or local law, ordinance or regulation based on any public policy, contract, tort, or common law or any claim for costs, fees, or other expenses or relief, including attorney's fees. Accordingly, all claims which could be pursued in court instead must be pursued in arbitration, and the arbitrator shall apply the law accordingly.

Likewise, the Company has a reciprocal obligation to arbitrate any covered claim against you and also agrees to be bound by the terms of this Agreement regarding any matter covered herein.

2. Claims Not Covered by This Agreement

Claims not covered by this Agreement are: (i) claims for workers' compensation benefits [However, this does not include claims for workers compensation retaliation]; (ii) claims for unemployment compensation benefits; (iii) claims based upon the Company's current (successor or future) stock option plans, employee pension and/or welfare benefit plans if those plans contain some form of a grievance or other express procedure for the resolution of disputes under the plan; (iv) claims filed with a federal, state, or local administrative agency (e.g., the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC"), the National Labor Relations Board ("NLRB"), etc.); (v) claims covered by a written employment contract signed by both parties which expressly provides for resolution of disputes in accordance with that contract's terms; (vi) claims by law which are not subject to mandatory binding pre-dispute arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, such as claims under the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform Act; (vii) claims that are not causes of action in court, e.g., disputes over performance reviews, disciplinary actions, compensation and other employment actions which when standing alone do not constitute a violation of any applicable law; and (viii) any claims arising under a restrictive covenant agreement (including but not limited to, non-solicitation, non-competition, confidentiality, etc.) between the Company and you as such restrictive covenant agreements will be adjudicated in a court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with its terms.

Further, this Agreement does not prohibit the filing of an administrative charge with a federal, state, or local administrative agency such as the EEOC, NLRB or the Department of Labor (DOL). Similarly, this Agreement shall not have any effect on any third parties non-signatories to this Agreement, including governmental agencies such as the EEOC, the DOL and the NLRB which by operation of law may file lawsuits in their own name notwithstanding this Agreement to arbitrate.

3. Class/Collective Action Waiver

This Agreement requires all claims to be pursued on an individual basis only. You and the Company hereby waive all rights to (i) commence, or be a party to, any class, representative or collective claims or (ii) jointly bring any claim against each other with any other person or entity. You and the Company must pursue any claim on an individual basis only, including claims alleging a pattern and practice of unlawful conduct. In addition, the inability to join others in a claim for pattern and practice violations shall not by itself constitute a bar to the pursuit of such a claim.

Lastly, nothing herein limits your right and the rights of others to collectively challenge the enforceability of this Agreement, including the class/collective action waiver. Notwithstanding, the Company will assert that the parties have agreed to pursue all claims individually in the arbitral forum and may ask a court to compel arbitration of each individual's claims. To the extent that the filing of such an action is concerted activity protected under the National Labor Relations Act, such filing will not result in threats, discipline or discharge.

4. Severability and Related Issues

The Arbitrator, and not any federal, state or local court or agency, shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability or formation of this Agreement including, but not limited to, any claim that all or any part of this Agreement is void or voidable. However, any determination as to the enforceability of the class/collective action waiver shall be made solely by a court. If a court deems the class/collective action waiver unlawful, then such action shall proceed forward in court as a collective, representative or class action.

With the exception of the class/collective action waiver as stated above, the arbitrator shall modify or amend this Agreement to cure any provision which the arbitrator has deemed unenforceable. This Agreement shall be self-amending; meaning if by applicable law a provision is deemed unlawful or unenforceable that provision and the Agreement automatically, immediately and retroactively shall be amended, modified, and/or altered to be enforceable. If this Agreement is determined to be unenforceable and cannot be amended to be enforceable or if a claim is found not to be subject to this Agreement, such matters shall be subject to a non-jury trial in the federal or state court that has jurisdiction over the matter.

5. Consideration

In addition to the consideration being a mutual Agreement to arbitrate, the Company agrees to reimburse you for any administrative filing fees the arbitration firm may impose on you to initiate arbitration. As further consideration, the Company will pay 100% of the arbitration firm's fees as well as the arbitrator's fees and expenses. To the extent permitted by applicable law, your continued employment and/or your accepting employment with the Company subsequent to this Agreement's implementation also shall constitute consideration and acceptance by you of the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. The Parties agree that the consideration set forth in this paragraph is wholly adequate to support this Agreement.

6. Arbitration Process

a. Arbitration Firm

The Company has selected National Arbitration and Mediation, Inc. ("NAM") to arbitrate all disputes under this Agreement. However, the Company reserves the right to change the arbitration firm from time to time provided that it gives advance written notice to you of such change and that the arbitration firm selected by the Company is a nationally recognized and experienced neutral arbitration organization (NAM and any designated successor to NAM is hereinafter referred to as the "Arbitration Firm").

b. Payment of Arbitration Fees and Costs

The Company will pay 100% of the Arbitration Firm's fees as well as the arbitrator's fees and expenses. The Company also will pay (or reimburse you) for 100% of any filing fees that the Arbitration Firm may charge to initiate arbitration. Each party shall otherwise bear its own costs and fees associated with the arbitration including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and the costs and fees of responding to discovery requests.

c. Filing to Commence Arbitration

The party seeking arbitration shall follow the then-current procedures required by the Arbitration Firm to file for arbitration. The filing and subsequent arbitration procedures shall be in accordance with the then-current version of the Arbitration Firm's rules for the resolution of employment disputes except as otherwise provided herein. Except as otherwise provided herein, the rules in effect at the time of arbitration will govern, and you should review an updated copy of the rules. Updated copies of the rules are available for review at the Human Resource Department or you may contact NAM to request a copy at 990 Stewart Avenue, Garden City, NY 11530, telephone no. (800) 358-2550, fax no. (516) 794-8518, email: customerservice@namadr.com or you may obtain them from NAM's website (http://www.namadr.com/documents/Emp-Rules_and_Proced.pdf). If an Arbitration Firm other than NAM is selected by the Company, the Company will provide you with information on how to obtain such firm's rules.

d. Selection of Arbitrator and Structure of the Arbitration

The Arbitration Firm shall provide each party with a list of three (3) arbitrators who are qualified in the field of employment law so that the Parties can select an arbitrator for both phases. The party that filed the arbitration shall eliminate one arbitrator from the list, and then the other party shall eliminate one arbitrator from the list of remaining two (2) arbitrators. The remaining arbitrator shall be the arbitrator selected for that phase.

If a summary judgment motion is made, the arbitrator must render a written and detailed opinion on that motion within sixty (60) calendar days of the submission of all supporting and opposition papers. If summary judgment is in any part denied, the case shall proceed to final hearing.

e. Time and Place of Arbitration

The arbitration will be held at a mutually convenient time and place within 50 miles of the Company location at which you are or most recently were working. Notwithstanding, by mutual agreement of the Parties, an alternate location outside the aforementioned 50 mile restriction is permitted.

f. Rules of Arbitration

Except as provided in herein, the arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Arbitration Firm's then-current rules for the resolution of employment disputes. To the extent that any of the provisions herein conflict with any rules of the Arbitration Firm, the express provisions of this Agreement shall prevail.

g. Authority of Arbitrator

The arbitrator shall be authorized to make awards including any remedy or relief provided by statute or common law under which the claim or dispute arises. However, the arbitrator shall have no authority to make awards beyond said remedy or relief. The arbitrator may award reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses only if expressly permitted by the applicable statute or law. In the absence of such an express requirement, the arbitrator shall not have the authority to award attorneys' fees and expenses to either party. The arbitrator shall not consider any claim that is barred by any applicable statute of limitations or otherwise raised in an untimely fashion as provided by applicable law. In reaching a decision, the arbitrator shall be bound by the law and applicable legal precedent and shall have no power to vary from said law and precedent. The arbitrator shall have no authority to consolidate claims and/or to arbitrate a collective, representative or class claim/action. Similarly, the arbitrator shall have no authority to make any determination as to the enforceability of this Agreement's class/collective action waiver.

h. Discovery

The arbitrator shall apply the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (except for Rules 23 and 26) and the Federal Rules of Evidence. The rules of discovery shall be modified to allow each party 10 interrogatories, including sub-parts, 10 requests for production, including sub-parts, and two (2) depositions. Electronic discovery is limited to searches of the Company's email accounts of no more than five (5) addresses for a twelve-month period and a maximum of five (5) search terms or phrases are permissible. For good cause shown, the arbitrator may modify these limitations on discovery.

i. Representation

Either party may proceed in arbitration with or without an attorney; however, each party is responsible to bear the costs and fees for their respective attorney.

j. Timeliness of Claims and Other Defenses

Any claim for arbitration which would be barred from court as untimely based on any applicable statute of limitations or other legal application, shall be equally barred from arbitration. All rights, remedies, exhaustion requirements, statutes of limitations and defenses applicable to claims asserted in a court of law will have equal application at arbitration.

k. Arbitration Awards / Decisions

Any decision or award rendered by the shall be written and set forth all facts and conclusions of law which the arbitrator relied upon in reaching his/her decision or award. The decision or award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both you and the Company. A decision or award may be entered as a final order / judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with the statutes and rules governing confirmation of arbitration awards / decisions. However, any decision by the arbitrator may be subject to review pursuant to the grounds set forth in the Federal Arbitration Act.

7. Other Issues

a. Jury Waiver

You and the Company expressly waive your right to a trial by jury for all claims covered by this Agreement.

b. Amendments

The Company may amend or terminate this Agreement upon 30 days written notice; provided, however, that this Agreement will remain binding on all parties as to any claims arising prior to the issuance of the notice of the Agreement's change or termination.

c. Choice of Law

This Agreement shall be deemed to be made and entered into in the State of Ohio, and shall in all respects be interpreted, enforced and governed under the laws of Ohio, without giving effect to any choice or conflict of laws principles.

d. Federal Arbitration Act

This Agreement is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA") and involves a transaction in interstate law.

e. No Employment Agreement / Employment At Will

Employment with the Company is at-will and voluntarily entered into and both you and the Company are free to end that relationship at any time, for any reason and with or without prior notice.

f. Condition of Employment

It is a condition of your employment by the Company that you agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement.

g. Survival

This Agreement, including all subparts, survives the termination of your employment with the Company.

h. Excused Leave to Attend Arbitration

Further, to the extent permitted by applicable law, your continued employment and/or your accepting employment with the Company subsequent to this Agreement's implementation also shall constitute acceptance by you of the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

I ACKNOWLEDGE THAT I HAVE RECEIVED AND READ OR HAVE HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO READ THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT. I UNDERSTAND THAT THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT REQUIRES THAT DISPUTES THAT INVOLVE THE MATTERS SUBJECT TO THE AGREEMENT BE SUBMITTED TO MEDIATION OR ARBITRATION PURSUANT TO THE ARBITRATION AGREEMENT RATHER THAN TO A JUDGE AND JURY IN COURT.
